

Facebook Live Training

Registering to Vote

Amy Zellmer- TBI Survivor, advocate, and author

Mollie Clark – Public Policy Associate at the Minnesota Brain Injury Alliance, Grassroots Lobbyist

Zack Eichten – Public Policy Associate at the Minnesota Brain Injury Alliance, Direct Lobbyist

1. Determine your eligibility

- a. Be 18 by election day
- b. Be a U.S. Citizen
- c. Meet any additional State Guidelines

2. Verify the voter registration deadline in your state or territory

- a. Follow this link to find the voter registration deadline in your state
<https://tinyurl.com/VRegDeadline>
  - i. It can be as soon as a month before the election!

3. Registering To Vote

- a. Go to vote.gov
- b. Select your state or territory
  - i. You can check if your state offers online registration at <https://tinyurl.com/OnlineStates>
- c. Vote.gov will tell you if you can register
  - i. Online
  - ii. Via mail (and which form is needed)
  - iii. In person

4. You can register by mail in most states

- a. Follow this link to download the national voter registration form.
<https://tinyurl.com/VRegForm>
- b. Some states have state specific instructions which are also included in the form. Make sure to check your state instructions before filing out the form!
- c. Mail to the appropriate state address found in the State specific instructions.

5. Absentee Voting

- a. Check at the following website for if your state does Absentee Balloting and the rules in your state <https://tinyurl.com/AbsBallot>

6. Questions?